

U.S. MARITIME ALERT 2024-001A
Threat Type: Potential Retaliatory Attacks by Houthi Forces
Geographic Area: Red Sea and Gulf of Aden

At 2330 UTC, coalition forces conducted strikes against targets used by Houthi rebels in Yemen to launch attacks against international shipping lanes and commercial vessels. U.S. Naval Forces Central Command recommends that U.S.-flagged commercial vessels remain north of 18N in the Red Sea or east of 46E in the Gulf of Aden for the next 72 hours. Further updates will be provided when available. This alert will automatically expire on Friday, January 19, 2024. Any questions regarding this alert should be directed to m-ba-navcent-ncags@us.navy.mil.